

Hebrews 10:19-25 (NKJV)

¹⁹Therefore, brethren, having boldness to enter the Holiest by the blood of Jesus, ²⁰by a new and living way which He consecrated for us, through the veil, that is, His flesh, ²¹and having a High Priest over the house of God, ²²let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water. ²³Let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering, for He who promised is faithful. ²⁴And let us consider one another in order to stir up love and good works, ²⁵not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as is the manner of some, but exhorting one another, and so much the more as you see the Day approaching.

Introduction
Faithful

I. He who calls you is faithful.

1 Thessalonians 5:24

He who calls you is faithful, who also will do it.

II. God is looking for a faithful servant.

Matthew 24:45-46

⁴⁵“Who then is a faithful and wise servant, whom his master made ruler over his household, to give them food in due season? ⁴⁶Blessed is that servant whom his master, when he comes, will find so doing.

III. The requirement of God to the stewards is that they be found faithful always.

1 Corinthians 4:1-2

¹Let a man so consider us, as servants of Christ and stewards of the mysteries of God. ²Moreover it is required in stewards that one be found faithful.

IV. Stewards need to hear in the last day the word from the Lord the words, “Well done” good and faithful servant.

Challenge

God has commanded the faithful to go and to make disciples of all the nations.

Matthew 28:19-20

¹⁹Go therefore and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, ²⁰teaching them to observe all things that I have commanded you; and lo, I am with you always, even to the end of the age.” Amen.

Luke 11:28

But He said, “More than that, blessed are those who hear the word of God and keep it!”

John 14:15

“If you love Me, keep My commandments.

Celebrating God's Lovingkindness in UCA

It has been another fulfilling and productive school year founded upon God's calling and favor to His ministry. To celebrate God's lovingkindness toward UCA for S.Y. 2025–2026, the school held its week-long Open House and Year-End Celebration from March 9 to 13, Monday to Friday, at the UCA Campus.

With the theme "Your lovingkindness is better than life," the entire UCA family united for one big celebration as the school year almost comes to its end. Jam-packed with exciting events, such as theater plays, special performances, and games, students once again experienced the fun and mind-blowing activities the school has to offer.

Fun Games

Throughout this week-long program, UCA prepared a variety of fun-filled games and challenges for all the students to enjoy. This became an opportunity for them to learn the importance of unity and sportsmanship to achieve their goals as a team.

What matters the most is not the idea of winning, but the relationship between the whole UCA family united by God's love.

The event highlights the celebration of God's goodness and lovingkindness to UCA. In every activity, the students express their joy and gratefulness for this successful and fruitful school year.

John 13:14-15 (NKJV) "If I then, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another's feet. For I have given you an example, that you should do as I have done to you."

Booth Games

Joyful laughters and bright smiles fill the UCA campus as the students play at the booth games with their friends and classmates. Exciting and challenging games like jenga, board games, puzzles, and basketball made the experience more fun and meaningful.

Whether in teams or individual games, the students show their eagerness and enthusiasm to participate and to win.

These memorable and cherished moments they gain from each event are reasons why they choose to stay in UCA. These experiences also stir excitement in them for more dynamic and thrilling programs in the next school year.

In every school activity, the students collect for themselves joyful memories together with their friends, classmates, and teachers.

⁴⁵Who then is a faithful and wise servant, whom his master made ruler over his household, to give them food in due season?
⁴⁶Blessed is that servant whom his master, when he comes, will find so doing.

Matthew 24:45-46
 (NKJV)

Mystery Box

Beaming with excitement, students enjoyed joining the mystery box after playing and winning from their favorite booth games. Each received useful prizes from their chosen mystery boxes.

Great prizes await from the mystery box for those students who played well in their chosen booth games.

Talented students who joined the previous foundation celebration delivered a special dance presentation. It was indeed a great way to commemorate their efforts and victories.

Special Number

THE VOICE

Students who joined The Voice once again own the stage with their talents together with their fellow schoolmates.

THE MOVES

The Moves participants and winners make a comeback as they perform with passion with their God-given talents.

Matthew 4:4 (NKJV)

But He answered and said, "It is written, 'Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceeds from the mouth of God.'"

LITTLE MR. AND MS. UCA

Love and adoration was felt throughout the performance of the Little Mr. and Ms. UCA which brought joyful smiles to the audience.

MR. AND MS. UCA

Beauty and elegance are seen through the dancing of the high school students who joined the pageant.

With this performance, everyone are encouraged to join in the next school year event to also showcased their talents and charms.

With poise and confidence they grace the stage as they move to the beat of a joyful song with thanksgiving in their hearts.

For who is greater, he who sits at the table, or he who serves? Is it not he who sits at the table? Yet I am among you as the One who serves.

Luke 22:27
(NKJV)

THEATER PLAY

Some of the famous poem in our country was creatively executed by the UCA students from Grade 7 to 8. Innate talents were showcased through their performance that brought amazement and thrill to the audience.

IBONG ADARNA

The whole week of theater plays by the students brought a heart-warming joy and memories that will surely be kept in as well to the school staff.

The auditorium was filled with applause, cheer, and joy as they watch the performance of the high school students.

FLORANTE AT LAURA

Students give their best in portraying the characters well in the poem to properly tell the stories.

Jude 1:21
(NKJV)

³Let nothing be done through selfish ambition or conceit, but in lowliness of mind let each esteem others better than himself. ⁴Let each of you look out not only for his own interests, but also for the interests of others.

Excellent and meaningful performance were shown featuring Dr. Jose Rizal's novel Noli Me Tangere and El Fili Busterismo. Students from Grade 9 and 10 bring these to life through role-playing on stage.

NOLI ME TANGERE

UCA marks the end of the school year with a joyous and festive celebration which brings students once more opportunity to perform together and have a fun time.

The smiles on their faces are a testament to a joyful year they experienced in UCA.

The Grade 10 students amazed the audiences by their incredible play following the story of Noli Me Tangere.

EL FILI BUSTERISMO

For who is greater, he who sits at the table, or he who serves? Is it not he who sits at the table? Yet I am among you as the One who serves.

Luke 22:27 (NKJV)

Dance Presentations

The adorable pupils and students sang and danced their hearts to the Lord as they perform for the year-end celebration. Each child participated with excitement, bringing smiles and joy to the audience.

PRESCHOOL

Their performance expresses one's love to our Almighty God and the bond they created with their classmates.

GRADE 1

Even at a young age, their voices lift up the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. They showcase their dance moves with grace and confidence all for the glory of His Name.

GRADE 2

Parents are present to show their love and support to their children. Through this, they see their children build confidence and showcase their talents and skills grown over the school year.

GRADE 3

Part of their holistic education is joining extra-curricular activities where they perform out of the corners of the classroom.

Jude 1:21
(NKJV)

Keep yourselves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto eternal life.

GRADE 4

Students unite their hearts to glorify the Lord and to reflect the love they experienced.

GRADE 5

Their coordination and talent in dancing are shown in every part of their presentation, as a result of their hardwork as a class.

GRADE 6

As the school year comes to an end, students give their best in showcasing their performance, showing friendship and memories that will remain in their hearts.

¹²But as many as received Him, to them He gave the right to become children of God, to those who believe in His name: ¹³who were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.

John 1:12-13 (NKJV)

Poster-making Contest

Students showcased their creativity in drawing using traditional, digital, and mixed media through the amazing posters they crafted with the theme "Imagine a Just World." The champion will be representing UCA in the upcoming Supreme Court Poster-Making Contest.

Using various coloring materials, students turn their ideas into vibrant work or arts. They are awarded for the masterpiece they created and they are gladly accompanied by their parents.

Balitaan Newscasting Contest

As early as they are, students' communication skills are honed through various activities such as the Balitaan Newscasting Contest. As they discover and enhance their skills in communication, their confidence is also boosted while demonstrating professionalism in front of the camera.

Guided by their parents and teachers, students confidently act as real-life newscasters both in outfit and in editing.

1 Peter 4:13 (NKJV)

As each one has received a gift, minister it to one another, as good stewards of the manifold grace of God.

Awarding

Students who actively participated in the Robotics and Junior Safety Officer clubs are given certificates of appreciation for their hardwork throughout the entire school year. These clubs help them hone technical and practical skills they can use in the future.

ROBOTICS

As technology becomes essential, students learn coding that they will use as they pursue in studying more about Robotics.

JUNIOR SAFETY OFFICER

As Junior Safety Officers, students are trained to promote safety to different areas of their daily lives as students.

Jude 1:21
(NKJV)

Keep yourselves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto eternal life.

With their active involvement in the fun games, badges are given to students who exhibit exemplary behavior throughout the exciting and collaborative activities with their teammates.

UCA educates and nurtures the students beyond the classroom setting. All who excel in dancing and singing are given recognition.

For the past week, the school has provided platforms and avenues for students to express their interest and passion in performing arts.

Capping the celebration off, high school students, who are given the opportunity to display their acting prowess through character portrayal in theater plays reap the fruits of their hard work as they receive their individual awards.

*16Most assuredly, I say to you, a servant is not greater than his master; nor is he who is sent greater than he who sent him.
17If you know these things, blessed are you if you do them.*

John 13:16-17
(NKJV)

Photobooth

The photobooth captures the joy of this special day as students, parents, teachers, and attendees strike a pose and create fun memories together. All these photos remind us of the joy, camaraderie, and wonderful moments that were shared during the last leg of this school year's programs and events.

Each frame is indeed worth remembering because behind every smile is a story of friendship, teamwork, and joyful experiences that bring out the best in them.

A single photo holds a thousand memories for these students together with their loved ones.

More than the awards, the friendship and bond are what they have as keepsakes from the events.

These moments remind us of the joy of growing and learning together—not only academically, but also in the love of the Lord.

Matthew 5:8 (NKJV)

Blessed are the pure in heart, For they shall see God.

After a year of learning and growing, students and their schoolmates also celebrate the journey they shared. These moments capture the joy of students who walked through the year together with their supportive parents.

As they look back, these photos become a reminder of God's blessings throughout the school year.

With grateful hearts, we celebrate a year filled with blessings and meaningful accomplishments, becoming an opportunity to honor God.

So they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and you will be saved, you and your household.
