

Together, we lift our voices in praise and thanksgiving, declaring that the Lord is our refuge and our dwelling place from generation to generation. His sustaining grace and faithfulness are reasons for our hearts to be joyful.

Do as I Have Done to You

John 13:1, 12-17 (NKJV)

¹Now before the Feast of the Passover, when Jesus knew that His hour had come that He should depart from this world to the Father, having loved His own who were in the world, He loved them to the end.

¹²So when He had washed their feet, taken His garments, and sat down again, He said to them, "Do you know what I have done to you?" ¹³You call Me Teacher and Lord, and you say well, for so I am. ¹⁴If I then, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another's feet. ¹⁵For I have given you an example, that you should do as I have done to you.

¹⁶Most assuredly, I say to you, a servant is not greater than his master; nor is he who is sent greater than he who sent him. ¹⁷If you know these things, blessed are you if you do them.

Introduction

The Feast of the Passover requires a lamb to be slaughtered. As Jesus is the Lamb of God, He knew that His hour had come. In the Feast of the Passover, the Jews put the blood of the Passover lamb on their doorposts and beam (support) to protect them from the angel of death, so also the blood of Christ, applied to our hearts by faith, protects us from the wrath of God.

Since God ordained the cross, it did not take Jesus by surprise. He deliberately laid aside His glory, just as He laid aside His garments. He took on the form of a slave and became obedient to death on the cross. Then, after His resurrection from the dead, He returned to the Father in glory.

Unless Jesus is your Passover lamb, unless you have applied His shed blood to your heart by faith, then you are under the curse of death, which means, eternal separation from God. But if you have put your trust in Christ, He wants you to know and to feel His special love for you. He loves you "to the end."

Philippians 2:5-8

⁵Let this mind be in you which was also in Christ Jesus, ⁶who, being in the form of God, did not consider it robbery to be equal with God, ⁷but made Himself of no reputation, taking the form of a bondservant, and coming in the likeness of men. ⁸And being found in appearance as a man, He humbled Himself and became obedient to the point of death, even the death of the cross.

Even if we do not deserve the love of God, God still have loved us.

- Do you know the love of Christ as a reality in your life?
- Does His love humble you before the cross?

- Does His love cause you to hate your sin?
- Does His love motivate you to serve others in love, even as He has loved you?
- And, if you have never experienced His love, will you respond now to His love?

A. Jesus' actions (washing of the feet) should be our reality in life.

Since actions speak louder than words, Jesus' actions show us both how He loved us when we were unworthy of that love and how we can love others who may not be worthy of it.

John 13:3-5

³Jesus, knowing that the Father had given all things into His hands, and that He had come from God and was going to God, ⁴rose from supper and laid aside His garments, took a towel and girded Himself. ⁵After that, He poured water into a basin and began to wash the disciples' feet, and to wipe them with the towel with which He was girded.

Do as I Have...

In ancient customs, washing someone's feet was the task for the lowest servants. Friends do not wash their friends' feet. The disciples were shocked that they sat in silence while Jesus washed their feet, until Jesus came to Peter. He verbalized their thoughts and protested.

John 13:8

Peter said to Him, "You shall never wash my feet!" Jesus answered him, "If I do not wash you, you have no part with Me."

Humility means that no task is beneath us as we do it for Christ's sake.

1 Peter 4:10-11

¹⁰As each one has received a gift, minister it to one another, as good stewards of the manifold grace of God. ¹¹If anyone speaks, let him speak as the oracles of God. If anyone ministers, let him do it as with the ability which God supplies, that in all things God may be glorified through Jesus Christ, to whom belong the glory and the dominion forever and ever. Amen.

Luke 22:26-27

²⁶But not so among you; on the contrary, he who is greatest among you, let him be as the younger, and he who governs as he who serves. ²⁷For who is greater, he who sits at the table, or he who serves? Is it not he who sits at the table? Yet I am among you as the One who serves.

Philippians 2:3-4

³Let nothing be done through selfish ambition or conceit, but in lowliness of mind let each esteem others better than himself. ⁴Let each of you look out not only for his own interests, but also for the interests of others.

But even if our feet were washed, it will become dirty again. Foot washing refers to the ongoing sanctification or ongoing cleansing of our daily life.

B. Jesus' actions (washing of our sins) should be our reality in life.

More than washing our feet, Jesus had washed our sins with His blood.

1 John 1:7

But if we walk in the light as He is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus Christ His Son cleanses us from all sin.

Many people are offended by the gospel or do not see their need for it because they are proud of their good works. They are proud of all that they do for others. They view themselves as having clean feet. It would embarrass them to admit that their feet are dirty and that Jesus needs to wash them.

To receive the gospel, you must recognize that your feet are filthy and that no one gets to heaven by washing his own feet or by washing others' feet. You only get to heaven when you let Jesus wash your feet.

Also, many people would like to be Christians but fail to see the need of the cross. They are ready to admire Jesus' life and His moral teaching, but they cannot bring themselves to believe that Christ died for their sins, and that without that death, they would be lost in sin.

God uses the cross (where Jesus shed His blood and died) to wash us from our sins.

We walk in this sinful world, so our feet get dirty. But if you have trusted in Christ, you are never so dirty that you need a complete bath again. But at the same time, although you have trusted in Christ, you are never so pure that you don't need to get your feet washed again. It is an ongoing process to maintain your relationship with the Lord.

Sometimes, your feet get dirty because of deliberate sin. You choose to do what you know God's Word forbids you to do. At those times, you need to confess your sin and appropriate the forgiveness that Christ secured for you by His death. At other times, you just feel defiled because of contact with this world.

Perhaps you have had to deal with worldly people at work, so the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life have left you feeling defiled. Those are the times when you need to open your Bible and let "the washing of water with the Word" cleanse and refresh your soul.

Ephesians 5:26

that He might sanctify and cleanse her with the washing of water by the word,

Conclusion

Let us ask ourselves:

1. Do I consistently experience Christ's undeserved love? If not, you need to figure out why not and get that problem resolved.
2. Do I consistently follow Christ's example of humble service? If not, list down some specific ways that you can begin this week.
3. Do I consistently come to Christ for cleansing from my sins and from the world? If not, He's waiting with the basin and the water of His word to wash your feet!
